

DEERFOOT NOTES

We Love the Souls of Everyone

“This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth” (1 Timothy 2:3-4).

Because we love the souls of men and want them to go to heaven, we preach the gospel of Jesus Christ. Paul knew this burden and said, “I am under obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. So I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome. For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek” (Romans 1:14-16).

Because we love the souls of men, we are not afraid to speak out against sin. We know that passions of the flesh “wage war against the soul” (1 Peter 2:11).

Because we love the souls of men, we preach the need to follow Jesus. Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. “No one comes to the Father except through me” (John 14:6).

Because we love the souls of men, we point people to what is best. The Lord Jesus came to bring us an abundant life (John 10:10). His yoke is easy, and His burden is light (Matthew 11:28-30). He is the Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6). He is “our wisdom and our righteousness and sanctification and redemption” (1 Corinthians 1:30). We can do no better than to preach Jesus and Him crucified to every soul in every place who will hear.

The Gap Between Knowing and Doing – Part 2

We ended our last article with the question, "Why does this gap exist?" There are a variety of reasons for the gap. First, the gap exists because some people are double-minded. James speaks of such a person saying "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways" (Js. 1:8). A double minded person is one who is not fully committed to Christ. As brother Guy N. Woods said, He is "attempting to pay homage to two masters (Matthew 6:24)." As a result he is unstable. Paul was a man who was fully committed to Christ. He wrote to the churches of Galatia telling them, "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me" (Gal 2:20). Paul was not literally crucified with Jesus, but just as Jesus was literally crucified and became dead to the literal things of this world, so Paul figuratively has been crucified that he might be dead to his old life. Paul is dead to that life and he has gone over to Christ's side. Now Paul is alive to serving Christ.

Now as a Christian Paul was so fully committed to Christ that he was willing to die for Him. On one occasion Paul was warned by Agabus, a prophet of God, that if he went to Jerusalem he would be bound and handed over to the Gentiles. Hearing that, Paul's companions begged him not to go to Jerusalem but he replied to them saying, "What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus" (Acts 21:13).

Secondly, the double minded man is one whose mind is not set on things above. Again listen to Paul's words to the brethren at Colossae, "If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. 2 Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth. 3 For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God" (Col. 3:1-3). In commenting on these verses William Barclay said, "Sometimes we say of a man, 'Music is his life' – 'sport is his life'—He lives for his work'..."For the Christian, Christ is his life. Jesus Christ dominates his thoughts and fills his life."

On one occasion Jesus rebuked Peter telling him, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on God's interests, but man's." (Mt. 16:23).
